On August 6, 2024, Bilal Ward tested positive for the use of marijuana and alcohol.

U.S. Probation Officer Action:

Following the positive test on August 6, 2024, Ward admitted to drinking alcohol and smoking marijuana. The individual under supervision advised he did not know the use of alcohol was prohibited. Ward was read the condition of his supervision pertaining to alcohol use, and he was told no further use is permitted.

Bilal Ward

Ward was verbally reprimanded for the marijuana use and reminded that marijuana remains a federally illicit substance. Ward acknowledged the same.

Ward is a member of the District of New Jersey's reentry program, ReNew. As a result, he has been referred to mental health assessment at Oaks Integrated in Montclair. The undersigned will discuss Ward's marijuana use with his therapist to determine if any substance abuse treatment is needed. Additionally, the use of marijuana was discussed with ReNew, and Ward's credits were negatively impacted.

The probation office will continue to monitor Ward's use of substances and his compliance with treatment, and the Court will be updated accordingly.

Respectfully submitted,

SUSAN M. SMALLEY, Chief
U.S. Probation Officer
